

National Historic Landmark District 50th Anniversary Elementary School Art Competition

The City of Savannah is seeking submissions of original student artwork celebrating the 50th anniversary of Savannah's National Historic Landmark District (designated in 1966) to display in an exhibit in City Hall's first floor rotunda. Submissions will be judged by a panel of artists, preservationists, and City leaders. The winning entries will be framed and displayed by the City of Savannah in City Hall for the period July-December 2016 for all our citizens and visitors to enjoy. These winning works will become the property of the City of Savannah and will not be returned to the artists. Work not selected for display will be returned to the artists after judging.

Awards and Exhibit Opening:

- Up to 6 winners will be chosen, including a "Best in Show."
- All winners will receive an award certificate, prize of art supplies, and reproduction of their winning work for their portfolio.
- Winners will be announced to the public during an exhibit opening at City Hall.

Requirements:

- Depicts some aspect of Savannah's National Historic Landmark District, whose boundaries are: the Savannah River on the north; Gwinnett Street on the south; Martin Luther King, Jr. Boulevard on the west; and East Broad Street and Trustees Garden on the east.
